

1) What is the main benefit this renovation package brings for residents?

2) What is the main risk or burden residents might face with this package?

3) Which design/policy/process, or implementation choices/approaches could reduce this risk or strengthen the benefit?

4) In which renovation phase should specific actions be taken to better align this package with residents' needs and minimise burdens?